

Keystone Stream Team

General Meeting
Tuesday, March 22, 2011
Susquehanna Conference Room
PFBC Headquarters, Harrisburg, PA

Revised Agenda

- 9:00am Welcome and Introductions – Mel Zimmerman, Lycoming College
- 9:20am General Announcements – Peter Petokas, Lycoming College
- 9:30am Using Floating Wetlands for Ecological Restoration – Ted Gattino, BlueWing Environmental Solutions, LLC
- 10:00am Aquatic Invasive Species Biosecurity Protocols – Sarah Whitney, Pennsylvania Sea Grant
- 10:40am The Mid-Atlantic Highlands Action Program – Paul Zeph, Pennsylvania Sea Grant
- 11:00am Break
- 11:20am An Introduction to Unbiased Information Regarding Energy in Northeastern Pennsylvania – Erich Schramm, Wilkes University
- 11:40am Improving Fish Passage and Public Safety at Low Head Dams – Paul Schweiger, Gannett Fleming, Inc.
- 12:30pm The Chesapeake Bay TMDL: Who Will Be The Biggest Loser? – Harry Campbell, Chesapeake Bay Foundation
- 12:45pm Group Discussion
- 1:00pm Adjourn

Future Meetings

- KST General Meeting, Tuesday, May 24, 2011, PFBC Headquarters, Harrisburg, PA
- Mid-Atlantic Stream Restoration Conference, November 15-17, 2011, Rocky Gap Resort, Flintstone, MD

Refreshments will be available from 8:30-1:00pm, and will include coffee, tea, hot chocolate, and assorted fresh fruit and pastries.

After the meeting, some members may gather at Cracker Barrel for lunch. To get there from PFBC-HQ, turn right onto Elmerton Road, continue to the stop light, turn left onto North Progress Avenue, then turn right onto Brindle Drive.

If you miss Brindle Drive, continue down the hill to Valley Road, turn right then right again. If you pass beneath I-81, then you have gone too far.